Why Join?

Help us continue to raise the prestige of UT by supporting the Forty Acres Scholars Program through the Forty Acres Society. As a Society member, you will mentor and interact with the scholars as well as network among fellow alumni who are leaders in their various fields. In addition, Society members regularly engage with university administrators and receive invitations to exclusive events. Society members share a passion for academics, leadership, and creating the future.

The Society’s Purpose

The Texas Exes created the Forty Acres Society to offer alumni a way to advance academic excellence at our university. The Society brings together a community of leaders who are passionate about their alma mater and committed to paying it forward.

Your membership in the Forty Acres Society makes a difference!

With your minimum donation of $1,000, you are directly supporting the Forty Acres Scholars Program and the world-changing dreams of these remarkable young people.

**Your gift is 100 percent tax-deductible.*

The Forty Acres Scholars Program inspires and nurtures visionary leaders and helps them develop their talents to benefit society.

Our scholars demonstrate intellectual curiosity and a track record of outstanding academic success. Most importantly, they have passion and a desire to live out the core values of The University of Texas at Austin.

By joining the Forty Acres Society, you’ll see this transformation firsthand and be part of something that truly will change the world.

Why the Forty Acres Scholars Program?

This is the only program of its kind administered by an alumni association, fostering a unique connection between the Scholars and their alma mater. The Texas Exes community will serve as a lifelong support system. Alongside academic achievement, the program focuses on personal development, relationship building, and real-world experience. Each year, it helps UT compete with top colleges and universities across the country for the most sought-after students.

AN ASSET FOR UT

The Forty Acres Scholars Program brings students from around the country who have distinguished themselves in high school through leadership, extracurricular activities, and community service. The students selected possess strong communication skills, excel academically, and aspire to make a meaningful difference.
