Current- Dallas Chapter

CHAPTER ADVISORY BOARD (CAB)

- Volunteers made up of former and current chapter leaders
- Pull from their experiences to offer support and advice to current chapter and network volunteers
- CAB- assigned chapters based on geography and chapter type
- Will reach out to you throughout the year to hear how your chapter or network year is going and what goals your group needs support on
- Communicate with your CAB member- they are here to help you!
- Small group 'Meet Your CAB' session at CNLC!

NETWORK ADVISORY BOARD CHAIR

Neal Makkar
Former Blazers Alumni Network President

107,000 Members Strong

There are more than 500,000 living alumni of The University of Texas in 176 countries around the world. Join this powerful network as a Texas Exes member and reconnect with the place you once called home. It's the next best thing to being here.

- Funds what we do!
 - Chapters and Networks Department
 - Maintain database and email marketing tool
 - Resources we provide to chapters and networks
 - Important that everyone promote it
- Support in membership efforts
- How to support membership:
 - Membership brochures at events
 - Members-only pricing
 - Members-only events
 - All officers must be Texas Exes members

Chapter and network “members” include all alumni that live in the area or that are a part of the network. Not necessarily all alumni in the chapter area or network are members, so important to promote membership. **

ADVOCACY

- Preparing our alumni—from educators, business analysts, social workers, and recent grads—for communicating with decision-makers on issues that directly affect students and professors on the Forty Acres.
- Promote the value of UT
- Register to be a UT Advocate at www.texasexes.org/advocate
- Advocacy Chair
