Chapter Leadership Job Descriptions

These are just a sample of the most common offices and their responsibilities. This list is not meant to be exhaustive, but rather a guideline.

Information for all positions
- Association bylaws require that every chapter leader (all members of a chapter’s Board, Advisory Board, or its committees) is a current dues-paying member of Texas Exes.
- Since each chapter is unique - and since there are many successful forms of leadership structure - the following should be taken as guidelines.

President
- Determine the chapter’s objectives for the year and work toward long-term goals.
- Supervise and coordinate the chapter’s activities, assuming responsibility for the overall success of the chapter.
- Call and preside over all Board or chapter-wide meetings; try to attend all of the chapter’s major committee or planning meetings and events.
- Delegate duties to committee chairs and/or Board members.
- Adhere to the bylaws of the chapter and of Texas Exes.
- Work closely with the president-elect to keep him/her informed of all aspects of the chapter’s activities.
- Serve as the principal liaison with the Texas Exes, the University and other organizations as needed.
- Encourage Board members to attend the Chapter Leadership Conference.
- With the president-elect, oversee the formation of the nominating committee, who will choose the slate of officers to be voted on for the following year.
- Work with the President-elect to make sure that all required charter documents are turned in by the June 1st deadline.

President-Elect
- Assist the president in meeting the chapter’s goals.
- Work on all chapter projects to familiarize yourself with the chapter you will be presiding over next year.
- Act as the presiding officer in the absence of the president.
- Responsible for sending in the officer list and signed charter agreement for your term to the Texas Exes Chapter Department by June 1st.
- With the president, oversee the formation of the nominating committee, who will choose the slate of officers to be voted on for the following year
